

Music From Big Creek

I've been fortunate enough to get to play lots of music through the years, with good friends & for great audiences. As a member of The Dixie Doughboys, I fell in love with Western Swing & traditional Country music, singing and performing first on bass, then guitar and electric mandolin, for an enthusiastic and loyal dance following. During that time, I wrote six of the songs presented here, some recorded with the Doughboys during my New York days, and some recorded in my studio, joined by some of my musician friends here in the North Carolina mountains. The other selections are favorites of mine, featuring the different instruments I love to play. I've included some shuffles, waltzes, swing tunes, and of course a Beatles song!

- A winter scene with a sunburst through trees and a snow-covered path. The sun is low in the sky, creating a bright lens flare and illuminating the snow-covered ground and trees. The path is covered in snow, and there are some rocks visible. The trees are bare, and the overall atmosphere is serene and peaceful.
